STEAMSHIP AGROUND. It is stated that the steamship Empire, for New York, went ashore on Matthias' Point shoals on Saturday night, and had not been gotten off yesterday morning. The tide was very low when the vessel went on the shoals, and the steamship E. C. Knight was unable to render the Empire assistance owing to the shallow water. The Empire is heavily laden, having among her freight 2,360 bar-rels of flour.

FESTIVAL -The ladies 'festival for the bencfit of the Baptist Church in this city, commences to night, in the room, on King street, adjoining the dry goods store of Harper & Bro. The room in which the festival is to be held has been handsomely and tastefully decorated by the ladies superintending the affair, and the suppers they propose to furnish will be acceptable to the most delicate palate.

INJURED. - Mr. John Perry, conductor on the Washington and Alexandria Railroad, was caught between two cars early yesterday morning, at the depot of the road, on Maryland avenue, in Washington, and quite seriously, though it is thought, not fatally injured. He was immediately brought to his home in this city, where the necessary surgical, assistance was rendered himman workering Mood about
